State University (CSU) breadth requirements or the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) as described in Title 5, section 55070 (PCAH, p. 69).

The required documentation for transfer-goal program proposals includes 1) articulation information that demonstrates the required courses fulfill the majority of the lower-division requirements for the baccalaureate degree major, and/or 2) evidence of transfer agreements between the college and the baccalaureate institutions to which students may transfer. The proposal should demonstrate UÍ [ccX-faith effort on the part of the college to assure that, to the extent possible, students will not have to repeat courses completed at h\Y`W@a a i b]hm`W`Y[Y`UZhf`h\Ym'hfUbgZYfÍ` (PCAH p. 69).

According to the PCAH:

A degree or certificate with a program [cU`cZÍch\YfÍ`]g`i gYX`hc`XYj Y`cd`XY[fYY` majors or areas of emphasis designed to meet community needs and reflect the educational philosophy of the faculty in a discipline or disciplines. Evidence of need for program proposals is required. Required documentation can be in the form of survey results, letters of support from community agencies, or other regional data in support of the need.

This type of proposal may have a broad area of emphasis, such as Social Sciences, or a theme-based area of emphasis that consists of an
